CALL FOR PRODUCERS TO ATTEND THE KALASHA INTERNATIONAL FILM & TV MARKET 2020

The KwaZulu-Natal Film Commission is calling for applications from local (KwaZulu-Natal) film and TV producers to be part of the KwaZulu-Natal Film Commission delegation that will be attending the KALASHA INTERNATIONAL FILM & TV MARKET taking place in Kenya in 24 – 26 March 2020.

Kalasha International TV & Film Market is a unique platform for all the regional & international players and festivalgoers from the TV & Film industry to gather, discuss exchange, collaborate, share stories and develop new business opportunities in a fast growing region. Kalasha International TV and Film Market is an initiative of Kenya Film Commission in the fast growing East African region. For three days, local and international professionals from the Audio-Visual and Film industry coming from East African countries, Europe and other places around the world, get a unique opportunity to boost their business through trading content, partnership opportunities, networking and more.

The event's primary objective is to showcase Kenya as a major regional hub for Film and TV production, post-production and distribution across all platforms and genres while reinforcing the uniqueness of Kenya as a shooting location. Along the trade show, several side events like conferences, workshops, coaching and pitching sessions take place. The event offers high-level interaction with Network groups, TV Channels, Mobile operators, Distributors, Commissioners, Producers, Directors, Scriptwriters and other stakeholders.
